Business Overview

Founded in 2006 a desirable and popular ladies fashion boutique located in a prominent high street position in the centre of the sought after market town of Kingsbridge in the South Hams. The business specialises in retailing designer clothing, shoes and accessories to a style conscious client base made up of local residents, second home owners and seasonal visitors. The business benefits from having a number of established brands and exclusive label agreements which attracts clients from beyond the immediate locality. Occupying attractive leasehold premises with ground floor retail area and further storeroom facilities, this is an easily managed operation for an owner operator best suited to a purchaser with a keen interest in fashion who enjoys interfacing with discerning customers. Offered for sale as a going concern on a confidential transfer basis.
