Business Overview

This established designer kitchenware shop is centrally situated in the market town of Kingsbridge in the South Hams, South Devon. The business was first introduced to the town in 2005 and offers an Aladdin's Cave of unique and branded kitchenware products that are for the most part generally unavailable in the average high street store. Occupying ideal leasehold premises with ground floor retail area and first floor storage area. The business is well supported locally with many regular customers and enjoys a healthy seasonal uplift but still huge scope for further development. The business is now offered for sale as a going concern on a confidential transfer basis due to the retirement of the proprietor.
