Business Overview

Offers invited for this extremely well-established catering and equipment hire business located in the heart of the picturesque and affluent area of the South Hams in South Devon. The business specialises in outside catering events such as wedding receptions, private parties, celebrations and corporate events. The catering concern is supported by an equipment hire business which provides all china, cutlery, glass, and linen needed for the events.

The businesses are run from specialist premises which are transferable on a lease basis to the successful purchaser. The business is now offered for sale as a going concern on a confidential transfer basis and represents a superb opportunity with plenty of scope for further expansion. Full training will be provided including an extended period of support if required.
