Business Overview

This established catering equipment hire business is located in the heart of the picturesque and affluent area of the South Hams in South Devon. The business is for sale by way of new commercial lease to occupy its existing purpose fitted industrial premises, or alternatively available on a relocation basis if required. The business specialises in providing equipment hire services - china, cutlery, glass, and linen etc and items that are required and hired in by catering business, venues and organisers of activities such as wedding receptions, private functions, parties, celebrations, outdoor and company events. Now offered for sale as a going concern on a confidential transfer basis, this sale represents a rare commercial services opportunity with plenty of scope for further expansion. Full training will be provided to ensure a successful transition of ownership.
